Holiday Happenings

HOLIDAY AT THE ARBORETUM

through December 31

Check out the intricate Victorian-style gazebos taking you through the "12 Days of Christmas" while strolling through the Dallas Arboretum's grounds - an experience elevated in the evening hours. New this year is a 50-foot musical Christmas tree boasting more than 40,000 lights. Stop by the Christmas Village to catch a holiday performance by local musicians and artists. The garden will offer seasonal programming including Santa visits and special treats, so reserve your tickets now for this prized Dallas tradition. (Look for the link to discounted tickets in the HqO Lincoln Centre app!)

TRAINS AT NORTHPARK

through January 2

Visitors of all ages return to see the trains and their background cityscapes each year, pointing out the tiniest details they see. Even better, the 34-year event benefits the Ronald McDonald House of Dallas, so don't miss your chance to help others by visiting this year. Purchase tickets here. (And while at the mall, visit Santa downstairs!)

PADDINGTON SAVES CHRISTMAS

December 5 - 23

This sweet story of the beloved bear from the Paddington children's book series will be performed by young actors at the Dallas Children's Theater. Watch as Paddington pulls everything together for the holidays just in the nick of time. You'll laugh and your heart will be warmed. Recommended for ages four and up. Purchase tickets here or contact the Lincoln Centre Community Manager at cortney.haney@cushwake.com for inquiries about discounted tickets.

BLACK NATIVITY

December 2 - 18

Fans of Langston Hughes' famous retelling of the Biblical Nativity story will enjoy this lively stage version of the story. Performed at the Bishop Arts Theatre Center, attendees have the option of in-person or virtual attendance. All ages are welcome for the energetic performance sure to get you in the holiday mood. Purchase tickets here.

SNOWDAY

Through January 17

Step into a 20+ room exhibit of eccentric wintry backdrops fit for creating amazing photos! At SNOWDAY inside Galleria Dallas, you can immerse yourself in everything from a mirror maze to a Christmassy 1970s RV. The experience takes about an hour, and at the end, you can get your professional-grade photos delivered right to your phone (social media ready!) Purchase tickets here.

Making Merry!

THE NUTCRACKER

December 9 – 12

Follow Clara through her journey during the holiday classic performed at Moody Performance Hall. Ballet fans will love the opportunity to experience Tchaikovsky's iconic score, including seasonal favorites like "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy" and more. Purchase tickets here.

DALLAS BY CHOCOLATE TOURS

Christmas Lights, Chocolate and Sips Tours

Nightly November 26 – December 30 (except Christmas night)

Taste scrumptious holiday treats from premier local dessert venues, then glide past some of Dallas' most spectacular light displays in the Park Cities and downtown Dallas OR Frisco/Addison (including Vitruvian Lights).

For tickets, go to www.dallasbychocolate.com + save $3 per ticket with code 3EAT

TRANS-SIBERIAN ORCHESTRA

December 11

The American Airlines Center will host the Trans-Siberian Orchestra for their 25-year celebration of the 1996 album "Christmas Eve and Other Stories." Don't miss their version of "O Holy Night," "The Silent Nutcracker" and of course, the Orchestra's driving, iconic take on "Carol of the Bells." Enjoy rooftop drinks at Happiest Hour before or after the concert. Purchase tickets here.

LGBTQ+ HOLIDAY EVENTS IN DALLAS

TEDDY BEAR PARTY

December 11

This year is the 10th annual Teddy Bear Party at The Echo Lounge & Music Hall. Not only is this a holiday event, but also a foundation advocating for LGBTQIA+ equality, social justice for all communities, defeating cancer and life-threatening diseases. Buy tickets here.

SURE STARS SHINING

December 17 – 19

The Sure Stars Shining holiday concert has something for everyone—from heart-warming traditional carols, exciting new renditions and thrilling entertainment.

Purchase tickets here.

22ND ANNUAL CHRISTMAS STOCKING AUCTION

December 12

The 22nd Annual Christmas Stocking Auction at Round-Up Saloon will donate all proceeds from the evening to Legacy's Founders Cottage. There will be free entry, awesome drinks specials, and wonderful entertainment! Click here for additional details.
