MEET THE BEES WORKSHOP

March 18 | 11am-12pm
Lincoln Centre West Parking Lot

How about experiencing a day in the life of a beekeeper by opening and inspecting a very real, very buzzing hive? It's time to finally meet your bees and create unforgettable memories with a ton of photo opportunities. You'll be invited to touch, smell and taste the hive's different products, see worker bees doing what they do best (working!), and if you get extra lucky, meet the one and only, Her Majesty the Queen Bee! Attendees will also receive a jar of Lincoln Centre honey (while supplies last.) Note: Masks and social distancing required at this event.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Lincoln Centre Blood Drive last month!

Our next blood drive is May 12. Mark your calendars now and be on the lookout for the donor sign up email.

CONGRATULATIONS to one of Lincoln Centre's security officers, Officer Padilla, who recently received United Protective Service's Officer of the Year award! We are beyond grateful for the hard work, commitment, and exceptional work ethic Officer Padilla brings to Lincoln Centre each day.

BONTON FARMS

Bontonfarms.org

Bonton Farms was born from a bold idea that a small urban farm can restore a community with an abundance of fresh, healthy foods, meaningful work, and an inspired sense of purpose.

What started out as a garden in a small lot has grown into two fully functioning farms and the Bonton Market. Bonton Farms is determined to grow the best-tasting, healthiest produce in the city while inspiring hope in those around them. Support Bonton Farms by shopping the farmers market, ordering takeout from The Market Café, purchasing gifts and merchandise, or become a friend of the farm by making a one-time donation or through their monthly giving program.
